

Asia Group Advisors joins FTI's Gold Affiliate Network

Leading public affairs consultancies team up to provide in-depth coverage across full Asia-Pacific region

Singapore, May 4, 2017 — Asia Group Advisors (AGA) today announced that it has joined forces with FTI Consulting, Inc.'s (NYSE:FCN) Strategic Communications division to provide comprehensive public affairs and strategic communications advice across the Asia Pacific region. AGA will become part of FTI's Gold Affiliate Network effective immediately.

"We are delighted to welcome Asia Group Advisors to our global community of strategic communications experts," said Edward J. Reilly, Global Chief Executive Officer of the Strategic Communications division at FTI Consulting. "We will continue to work with clients on integrated cross-border assignments, where it is essential that we can offer expertise wherever there is a need to manage change or mitigate a reputation risk."

"AGA is proud to announce that we are now a Gold Affiliate of FTI. Our teams seamlessly work together to service clients across multiple countries, leveraging both on-the-ground execution capabilities in all the key markets and knowledge-sharing among our respective offices to provide deep insight into region-wide dynamics," said Adam Schwarz, CEO and Founder of Asia Group Advisors.

The announcement marks an important step in deepening the ongoing collaborative relationship between the two firms, combining AGA's team of experts across the key Southeast Asian markets with FTI's extensive resources in Northeast Asia, India and Australia/New Zealand.

"This announcement is the formalisation of an existing close working relationship between our two firms. As a joint service offering, we can now deliver to our clients even greater local market insights and execution capabilities across Asia," said Paul Downie, Chairman of Southeast Asia and Australia, FTI Consulting Strategic Communications.

Within the Affiliate Network established by FTI Strategic Communications, the Gold Affiliates are FTI-endorsed and publicly profiled and contactable through the FTI website. These firms have been admitted to the Network based on their market-leading expertise and experience. Gold Affiliates are also able to access FTI's comprehensive online Learning and Development curriculum, in addition to the active support of a dedicated business development helpdesk.
